Member Code of Conduct

The Bigelow Center for Senior Activities is dedicated to promoting a dignified, healthy quality of life for older adults by advocating for vital services, providing opportunities to develop meaningful fellowship, offering lifelong learning activities, recognizing the continued and varied accomplishments of older adults, and being an accessible and trusted community resource.

- All Town of Fairfield Facility Policies as set by the Fairfield Health Department and Town of Fairfield apply to the Bigelow Center. In times of health concerns, appropriate facemasks may be required and hands must be sanitized upon entry. Those who refuse will not be permitted to enter the building.
- Treat everyone with respect.
- The use of abusive, intimidating, threatening, or harassing language strictly prohibited.
- Fighting, physical abuse, challenging others to fight, destroying or damaging property and other disruptive, intimidating or harassing behaviors are strictly prohibited.
- Alcohol or illegal drugs shall not be brought to the Center or Center grounds. Anyone under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs will be asked to leave the Center.
- Weapons of any kind are not permitted on the premises.
- The Center does not provide sleeping accommodations. Lying outstretched or sleeping on the furniture or the floor is not allowed.
- Proper shoes and clothing must be worn at all times.
- No solicitation or sales of goods or services by an individual, participant or group are allowed.
- Participants who cause an unreasonably loud noise that is disturbing or annoying may be asked to leave the building.
- Please refrain from any PDA (public display of affection) which includes but is not limited to: sexually implicit dancing, kissing, groping and lap sitting

General Facility Rules

- Participants must complete and submit a registration form annually and scan card/sign-in at each visit.
- Participants are not allowed in staff areas (kitchen, offices, closets) without staff permission.
- Service Animals (as defined by federal and state law) may enter the Center, must be restrained, and under the supervision of their companion or owner at all times.
- Animals may not be left unattended outside the Center.
- Community phone use is limited to local calls for emergencies.
- Restrooms shall not be used for bathing, shaving, or washing clothes.
- Smoking is strictly prohibited in the building or on the premises.
- Personal belongings must not be left unattended.
- Any minor visiting in the Center must be signed in and supervised by his/her guardian at all times. Minors who are volunteering must have parental approval and be under the supervision of designated staff, teacher or parent at all times.
- All senior center participants under 60 years of age who participate in the lunch program shall pay $13.00 per meal and wait until eligible seniors have been served.
- Surveys, photographs, or video recording in the Center require prior written permission of the staff. Release forms are required.

I have read and understand the Code of Conduct for the Bigelow Center for Senior Activities. I agree to abide by the Code of Conduct and Facility Rules described above for as long as I am an active member of the Center and understand that I may be removed as a participant at the sole discretion of the Director of Human and Social Services, or their designee, if I violate any of these rules.
