

CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF FAIRFIELD, CT
ARTICLE XI
Standards of Conduct

§ 11.1. Declaration of policy.

Elected and appointed Town officers, RTM members, members of boards, commissions, authorities, and committees, and all employees of the Town shall demonstrate by their example the highest standards of ethical conduct, to the end that the public may justifiably have trust and confidence in the integrity of government. As agents of public purpose, they shall hold their offices or positions for the benefit of the public, shall recognize that the public interest is their primary concern, and shall faithfully discharge the duties of their offices regardless of personal considerations.

§ 11.2. Conflicts of interest.

No elected or appointed Town officer or employee or RTM member or any member of any authority, board, commission, or committee shall:

A. Solicit or accept any gift, directly or indirectly, whether in the form of money, loan, gratuity, favor, service, thing or promise, or in any other form, under circumstances in which it can reasonably be inferred that the gift is intended to influence the Town officer, employee, or member in the performance of official duties; (Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the solicitation or acceptance of lawful contributions for election campaigns.

B. Disclose confidential information gained by reason of the office or position or use such information for the personal gain or benefit of anyone;

C. Knowingly have or acquire any financial interest or any personal beneficial interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or purchase order for any supplies, materials, equipment or contractual services furnished to or used by the Town in connection with any project, matter or thing which comes within the Town officer's, employee's, or member's jurisdiction or the jurisdiction of the board, commission, authority, committee or body of which the person is a member (unless such interest is acquired through being the lowest responsible bidder after public advertisement); or

D. Engage in any business transaction or activity or have a financial interest, direct or indirect, which is incompatible with the proper discharge of the official duties or which may tend to impair the independence of judgment in the performance of the Town officer's, employee's, or member's official duties.

§ 11.3. Disclosure of interest.

Any elected or appointed Town officer or employee, RTM member, or member of any board, commission, authority, or committee who possesses or who acquires such private interest as might reasonably tend to create a conflict with the public interest shall make disclosure thereof to such board, commission, authority, committee, or body and such person shall be disqualified from action on any matter involving the private interest.

§ 11.4. Fair and equal treatment.

No elected or appointed Town officer or employee, RTM member, or member of any board, commission, authority or committee shall use an official position to secure or grant special consideration, treatment, advantage, privilege, or exemption to himself or herself or to any person beyond that which is available to every other person. This provision is not intended to prevent an RTM member from properly representing the people of the member's district.

§ 11.5. Penalties and disciplinary action for violations.

The failure to comply with, or any violation of, the standards of conduct established by this Charter shall be grounds for the removal from office or discharge from employment of the offending Town officer, employee, RTM member, or member of any board, commission, authority, or committee and the Board of Selectmen in its discretion may void any contract entered into or adopted in violation of this Charter. The Board of Selectmen or the Ethics Commission may recommend disciplinary measures for RTM members who fail to comply with, or who violate, these standards, but the RTM retains the final authority to discipline its members.
